

Curriculum Vitae

Lutz Wittig

Head of Human Resources and Organization at Daimler Buses

Lutz Wittig (53) started his career in the Daimler group immediately after graduating from University of Cooperative Education Stuttgart with a degree in mechanical engineering.

After different functions in the R&D-area of Mercedes-Benz, he changed to the area of Human Resources in 1991, area of focus compensation, and held first managerial positions. In 1999, Lutz Wittig changed to the Office of the Corporate Secretary of the Board of Management of Daimler AG which he headed starting from 2001. Until November 2015 he headed the HR business unit at group headquarters and was the HR Business Partner responsible for the functional departments COB, FC, IL and HR. Prior to this Lutz Wittig had been head of group Compensation and HR Policy from 2006 until 2010.

Since December 1st, 2015 Lutz Wittig is Head of Human Resources and Organization at Daimler Buses and is responsible for the global HR-activities of the bus business.